

2018 Internship - GRAPHIC DESIGN (Application deadline February 20th 2018)

(The Internship last for 3 months, starting in March 2018)

Anti-Tribalism Movement have created a unique hands on experience for students looking to gain experience in graphic design and content producer.

We are looking for bright, passionate, hard-working students to be a part of our team through our internship program.

All internships for the Anti-Tribalism Movement are unpaid internships. However, travel and food expenses are reimbursed.

The internships allow the individual to gain valuable experience with a reputable organisation for their future in charity, community. All candidate hours can be flexible to accommodate with your university or work schedule.

Position Overview:

- Create and design flyers, posters and other collateral to support the other projects at the charity.
- Planning and writing posts and helping to manage or create photography / video / design assets for Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, LinkedIn, YouTube and more plus articles, newsletters, communications materials, and material for wider social media channels.
- Create and design of online/digital graphics to use on web and social media outlets
- Ability to work 2 days a week in the office, plus event days such as International Somali Awards
- Good working knowledge of video, sound mixing and editing

QUALIFICATIONS:

The requirements listed below are representative of the knowledge, skill, and/or ability required.

Language Skills

- Ability to read and comprehend simple instructions, short correspondence, and memos.
- Ability to work well in team environment.
- Ability to clearly communicate thoughts, ideas and designs
- Ability to multi-task on design projects

Technical Skills and Abilities

- Working knowledge of graphic design software in a MAC environment. The intern is required to have skills and abilities in the following areas:
- Adobe Photoshop - Adobe Illustrator - Adobe InDesign
- Photography experience is a plus
- Working knowledge of Adobe After Effects is a plus

To apply this, please submit your CV and covering letter to info@theatm.org