

2018 Internship – Community engagement Intern (Application deadline 14th September 2018)

(The Internship last for 3 months, starting in Mid September 2018)
Flexible (1-2 days a week)

Anti-Tribalism Movement have created a unique hands on experience for students looking to gain experience in community development and project planning

We are looking for bright, passionate, hard-working students to be a part of our team through our internship program.

All internships for Anti-Tribalism Movement are unpaid internships.

(Travel and Food expenses reimbursed)

The internships allow the individual to gain valuable experience with a reputable organisation for their future in charity, community. All candidate hours can be flexible to accommodate with your university or work schedule.

Position Overview:

- Support the team in creating and organising community engagement events
- Plan and design monthly Open-Minded Debate
- To use personal initiatives in finding creative ways in engaging with the Somali community
- Work on existing projects such as women empowerment programmes
- To attend community meetings to build on relationships and engage with other Somali organisations
- Create and design flyers, posters and other collateral to support the other projects at the charity.

QUALIFICATIONS:

The requirements listed below are representative of the knowledge, skill, and/or ability required.

- Undertaking a undergraduate degree.
- Knowledge of the Somali community
- Interest in community development, youth and gender empowerment
- The Intern is required to have skills and abilities in the following areas:
Microsoft word and creative leafleting
- Ability to work well in team environment.
- Ability to clearly communicate thoughts, ideas and designs
- Ability to multi-task on projects

Apply via email at (info@theatm.org)